HASSAN.

6th. June 1908

Dear Mr. Rangasami Iyengar,

In continuation of my D.O.letter dated 9th. May 1908, I write to inform you that the Amildar of Manzerabad Taluk reports that Mr. M.N.Subbiah owner of some of the Estates hypothecated to the late Agricultural Bank at Saklaspur died of cholera on the 27th. ultimo, and that there is no other member in his family who is able to undertake the management of those Estates.

In para 5 of my D.O.letter above quoted, I recommended that moderate advances be given to Mr. M.N.Subbiah on crop hypothecation, but owing to his subsequent death, and there being no other member of his family who may be trusted with the cultivation of the Estates, there now appears no alternative than to take them over for Government management through the Amildar until purchasers can be found.

Yours Sincerely,

Mr Wetherall
